

MAJOR REVISIONS TO ROCK COUNTY 4-H POLICY - 2017

Approved at Joint Meetings of the Junior and Senior Councils

Revisions go into effect for the remainder of the current 4-H year, if applicable.

Otherwise all revisions go into effect on October 1, 2017.

- Re-enrollment deadline is changed from December 1st to November 15th. New members may still enroll at any time.
- Project changes, including additions or deletions, are allowed until March 1st.
- There is NO maximum number of projects in which a member may enroll. However, members must still publicly exhibit in EACH project in order to achieve.
- Members must fulfill a yearly record requirement in order to achieve. The record requirement may be a Year End Summary (a new option currently being developed), a record book, an essay or other choices as approved by the Rock County 4-H Leaders Council.
- Members must still attend a minimum of three regularly scheduled meeting of their club in order to achieve.
- Clubs are responsible for submitting membership fees to the UW Extension Office by the second Friday of December. The 4-H Leaders Council Executive Board may determine consequences for clubs not meeting this deadline.
