

Adams County 4-H Leaders Association Overview

UW Madison Division of Extension

Wisconsin 4-H Program

Extension Adams County 4-H Program Coordinator
Evan Henthorne

The 4-H Program Coordinator is charged with overall leadership & oversight for all 4-H Youth Development programs & groups in the county. This includes guidance & support for the 4-H community club program, 4-H outreach programs, & serving as a community leader in youth development.

4-H County-Wide Projects

A volunteer or group of volunteers, (Educational Team) have come forward to teach that project to any 4-H members in Adams County who are enrolled. Countywide projects are additional educational resources available for any youth. They are not a requirement to full participate in that project area. Countywide projects may have additional requirements. The following project areas have countywide support.

Current:

- Horse & Pony Project
- Shooting Sports
- Youth Leaders
- Livestock Committee

Potential:

- Agriculture & Natural Resources
- Animals
- Younger Members
- Creative Arts
- Family & Consumer Sciences
- Personal Development
- Science, Engineering, & Technology
- Club Adult Leadership

4-H Leaders Association

The purpose of this Association is to supplement and enhance the learning experiences provided to the 4-H members within Adams County and to assist in the coordination of learning experiences and financial support of Adams County 4-H youth members, 4-H volunteer/leaders in County, District, State, Regional, National, and International events.

4-H Clubs

4-H is open to all youth & adults regardless of their ethnic background, race, creed, or disability. Most 4-H clubs have meetings for the entire membership once a month. During these meetings, decisions are made about group sponsored activities such as community service efforts, project opportunities, & fund raising efforts.

Local Clubs:

- Arkdale Kings & Queens
- Easton Great Eagles
- Lucky Wolves
- Jolly Time Beavers
- New Haven Helping Hands
- Royal Wranglers
- Thrifty Pals
- Young Guns

Leaders Association Committees

Standing Committees:
 Educational Programming
 Awards & Recognition
 Promotion
 Financial Support

Ad Hoc:
 Budget
 Audit
 Others as needed

Leaders Association Executive Board

The purpose of the Executive Board is to make recommendations on issues for discussion and action by the organizations members. The Executive Board is accountable to the membership of the organization. The responsibilities of the board include: organizational planning, policy making that relates to the 4-H Leaders Association, enforcement of policies and grievance handling related to Association policy, legal responsibilities and financial responsibilities.