The PERSONAL CONSUMER INFORMATION

TIP: Make sure this information is correct. A wrong address or phone number could be a mistake – or a sign of identity theft.

PUBLIC RECORDS INFORMATION

NOTE: A bankruptcy can stay on a credit report for 7-10 years from the date of filing depending on the type of bankruptcy.

- Chapter 7 bankruptcy is reported for 10 years since all debt is discharged.
- Chapter 10 bankruptcy is reported for 7 years since some of the debt is paid back.

ADVERSE

ACCOUNTS show lines of credit that have not been paid, have missed or late payments, were sent to a collection agency, or were "charged off" meaning that the company reported the debt as lost income and may have sold the debt to a collection agency. A history of late payments lowers your credit score, especially if it's more recent. Many lenders will not offer credit until overdue debts have been paid.

TIP: Negative items can legally be removed from a credit report if it's been more than 7 years from the date the debt first became overdue. If old items are listed, contact the credit bureau and ask these accounts to be taken off.

NOTE: Even if debt does not show up on a credit report after 7 years, a person may still owe the debt and be taken to court, depending on the State and type of debt.

NOTE: Even if debt does not appear on a credit report, the Consumer Reporting Agencies (CRA's) keep your older debt on file and can release the information when you apply for the following:

- Credit of $150,000 or more, such as a mortgage.
- Life insurance with a face value of $150,000 or more.
- A job with an annual salary of $75,000 or more.

The SATISFACTORY ACCOUNTS section shows credit accounts that are current or have been paid as agreed. The accounts listed are from information reported by lenders. Creditors choose whether to report account information to none, one, two, or all three of the major Credit Reporting Agencies and how often to report. Having satisfactory accounts that you pay the balance on regularly is good for your credit score.

The 'Account Type' lists the kind of credit account.

- Installment Accounts – like car or student loans where you borrow a set amount and then make monthly payments.
- Revolving Accounts – usually credit cards that have a credit limit.

TIP: The 'Credit Utilization Ratio" (CUR) is how much of the balance is currently reported as being used in all your revolving accounts combined.

In this sample report, there's only one revolving account. The credit card account above has a $387 balance divided by $1000 limit = 38% CUR.

To raise your credit score, keep your CUR under 25%. Some credit scoring models say to keep this ratio under 5% for a better credit score.

In the SATISFACTORY ACCOUNTS section, future creditors, insurance companies, landlords, and some employers look for a history of on-time payments as a sign that a person is responsible and trustworthy. Positive information is usually listed for 10 years after an account is closed or paid off. If there is a history of late payments, creditors and insurers may still work with a person, but will charge higher rates.

TIP: Make sure accounts listed belong to you and that the information is correct. When you order your report, Credit Reporting Agencies (CRA's) are required to provide information about how to dispute an item or correct an error in your report. Keep a copy of any letters or emails you send and customer service representatives you speak with. The CRA usually has 30 days to fix the error or show why it's correct.

TIP: Applying for credit could lower your credit score a few points each time you contact a lender. If you're shopping for the best interest rate on a car loan, get a few quotes for loans within 14 days of each other. When shopping for a mortgage, get quotes within 30 days of each other. Most credit scores will only count these inquiries as one item, instead of many requests.

PERSONAL CONSUMER STATEMENT

I had a bad accident in 2013 and couldn't work. I filed for bankruptcy in 2013 because of medical bills.

The CREDIT INQUIRIES section includes information about when a credit report has been requested. There are two types of inquiries:

REGULAR INQUIRIES

are also known as HARD inquiries. When you apply for credit or buy insurance, for example, the lender reviews your credit report for a positive history and credit worthiness. These inquiries stay on a report for 2 years and can be seen by all creditors who look up your report. Hard inquiries can drop a credit score by 5-20 points for many months.

ACCOUNT REVIEW

inquiries are also called SOFT or Promotional inquiries. Companies ask for certain parts of your credit information to see if you qualify for their services. These items are only seen by you and do not affect your credit score.

NOTE: You have the right to add a short statement to your credit report to dispute a credit item or explain a situation. The statement does not affect your credit score and many lenders may never even read it.
