Trips Manual

Due Date: On or before 4:30pm on the Tuesday after Labor Day

Trip applications are submitted to the 4-H Office by your club leader or designee – not individually

Information listed at:

<https://fyi.uwex.edu/wi4hedopp/>

supersedes all trip details listed in this manual

General Information

All work must be completed by the youth – not parent/guardian, leader, etc. Any application that isn't completed by the youth will not be considered. If special assistance is required by the youth, please provide written explanation.

In the event that there is a question, the youth may be called for an interview.

Dane County UW-Extension Office: 608-224-3705

- Funding for only one trip per person per year will be awarded (exception: National Conference)
- Selection process for trip funding: selection is based on written materials and interviews if required
- 4-H members selected to receive trip funding must pay their remaining portion of the trip fee as billed with payment in full prior to the experience (unless prior arrangements have been made)
- The selected youth are responsible for registering for their trip through 4honline in a timely manner to secure their spot and/or selected dates
- The Dane County 4-H Awards Committee and Dane County UW-Extension Staff are not responsible for late or missing forms, or the incorrect processing, posting and/or submission of forms
- No trip award funds will be issued without the 4-H member involved, first registering in a timely manner for the related trip through 4honline and fully completing all additional paperwork required by Wisconsin 4-H. Please contact the Dane County UW-Extension Office by November 1 for the deadlines and paperwork appropriate to your trip

FISCAL POLICY

Dane County 4-H Leaders Association, Inc. Standing Rules – Amended September 20, 2016

A. The Dane County 4-H Leaders Association, Inc. will financially support:

1. Trips

50% of the awarded trip fee will be paid, not to exceed $500.00. Only one awarded trip per 4-H member will be funded each year, exception National Conference.

Citizenship Washington Focus (CWF)

National Congress

National Conference – nominee

International Trips – 4-H members will receive $250.00 towards approved trip after having requested from the DC4HLA

4-H members may only be awarded or attend above trips one time

2. Other 4-H Events

Members of other special 4-H events may request reimbursement from the DC4HLA Board. First time members/individual on State 4-H teams such as Press Team, Drama Team, Dairy Judging, etc., may be reimbursed up to $100.00.

Space Camp youth attending for the first time as a camper or counselor may be reimbursed up to $100.00. First time camper attendees are given priority over counselors.

Funding for repeat attendance will be at the discretion of the DC4HLA.

3. Trip Policy for Awardees Who Cancel

In the event that a member or leader who has been selected for a 4-H award trip or any 4-H activity/event does not attend/participate in the trip/activity, the member/leader will be responsible for 100% of all costs of the trip/activity incurred by the Dane County 4-H Leaders Association. If cancellation is made before the deadline required for each individual trip/activity, all efforts will be made to find an alternate to fill the slot in conformance with the award trip policy. If an alternate cannot be found, the member will be responsible for the full amount. Emergency situations will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Once a member has been awarded a trip and they cancel, they may apply for that trip in the future, but no funding will be available from the DC4HLA.

4. Youth Conference

Enrolled 4-H members attending Wisconsin 4-H and Youth Conference held in Madison, WI will receive $75.00 towards their registration fee paid. Required chaperones will have 100% of their registration fee paid.
