

A collaborative project of City of Madison, Dane County UW-Extension, Dane County Youth Commission, and United Way of Dane County

Calling All Dane County High School Students

If you had the power to improve issues that are important to you, would you?

Join BYFY!

BYFY (By Youth For Youth) is a unique volunteer opportunity for youth to become leaders in the community. BYFY members are Dane County high school students who identify critical issues impacting their peers, establish funding priorities, review proposals, and recommend funding to support youth programs.

WHO? High school students who want to make a difference for youth.

WHAT? Participate in a youth-led committee that directs over $30,000 to youth projects in Dane County. Hone your leadership skills and engage in a local community service project.

WHY?

- Be a voice for youth in your community
- Develop leadership and collaboration skills
- Grow facilitation and decision-making skills
- Make real change in your community
- Fund youth-led projects and initiatives
- Connect with a diverse group of students

WHEN & WHERE? 6 months from mid-October to mid-April (off over winter break & holidays). Weekly Monday meetings in Madison from 6pm-8pm, with dinner starting at 5:45pm. Transportation assistance available

For more information -

Email Samara at samara.safarik@uwdc.org or visit www.unitedwaydanecounty.org/byfy

An EEO/AA employer, University of Wisconsin-Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title VI, Title IX, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requirements. Requests for reasonable accommodations for disabilities or limitations should be made prior to the date of the program or activity for which it is needed. To make a request, please call 608-224-3712 as early as possible prior to the program or activity so that proper arrangements can be made. Requests are kept confidential.

