

Small-Scale Food Processing
Business/Tenant Service Needs

Worksheet #3

Businesses, whether start-up, expanding, or exiting, require a number of services to make a smooth transition. Developing and continually updating a resource file of service providers, industry contacts, on-line resources, materials, etc.

These services could include technical and business support, marketing, distribution, processing/testing, regulatory/licensing, packaging, graphics....

TO DO: List 10 examples of the types of services you currently need. If you are working with tenants/clients survey them for their service needs. Complete the attached Excel sheet and then summarize in the chart below.
