

Healthy Soil, Healthy Water Workshop

Preserving our Land and Water Legacy in the Wisconsin River Basin through Locally Led Conservation

| | | |
|---------------|---|---|
| 8:00 AM | Welcome Breakfast | Room L133-134 |
| 8:45 | Campus Welcome | Dr. Sue Budjac, President, Mid-State Technical College, Wisconsin Rapids Campus; Auditorium |
| 8:55 | Getting Beyond Point Sources, Nonpoint Sources and Pointing Fingers | Opening remarks by Peter Manley; Auditorium |
| 9:15 | Rearranging Wisconsin's Landscapes | The Roles of Rivers and Glaciers, and the History of Glacial Lake Wisconsin Presenter: Dr. Eric Carson |
| 10:00 | Networking BREAK | |
| 10:15 – 11:45 | Breakout Session | Breakout Sessions Participants will rotate through both sessions 1. Locally Led Conservation Leadership <ul style="list-style-type: none"> § John Eron, Eron Farm, Eron Agronomics, Mill Creek Watershed § Jeff Endres, Endres Berry Ridge Farms, Yahara Pride Farms § Rick Georgeson, Petenwell and Castle Rock Stewards § Kirk Boehm, Lake Wisconsin Alliance 2. Conservation Tools and Partnerships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Pat Socha, Pat Socha Farm § Paul Onan, Our-Crest Farm § Andy Wallendal, Wallendal Farms, WI Potato and Veg Grower Assoc. § Sam Warp, Marshfield Wastewater Treatment Plant § Bob Micheel, Monroe County Land Conservation |
| 11:45-12:30 | LUNCH | |
| 12:30-2:00 | Breakout Session | |
| 2:00 | Networking BREAK | |
| 2: 15 | Healthy Soil Means Healthy Water... and Healthy Profits | Soil Health Talk and Demonstration Presenter: Ray "the Soils Guy" Archuleta |
| 3:45 | Where do we go from here? | Shane Wucherpennig and Group Discussion |
| 4:30 | Adjourn | |

Thank you to our financial sponsors and planning partners!

