3. What was one thing you learned at this workshop?

- Leadership programs and their potential to help in globalization awareness
- That Europeans are moving here
- That dairy operations are opening-not just closing
- We have resources and colleagues to start this work immediately-support from Arlen is critical and appreciated
- Globalizing can be done home and statewide, not just international
- How much int'l is happening in WI
- How much passion for globalizing Extension exists in this group
- About international component of WRLP
- The importance of thoughtful action
- The wealth of internal overseas experience and expertise available
- Connections/and/how to challenge biggots
- We have a long way to go
- Vast variety of UWEX people interested/involved in int'l work
- The passion for and commitment to this venture
- I learned from others in my group experience, their ideas
- UWEX is committed to this idea
- The transformational model, its value and moving the org. and co-colleagues toward it
- There are a lot of resources already in place
- How international UWEX already is
- That extension is more interested in international work/ideas than I thought
- More interested in Int'l assignments than I expected
- Deficit v. transformative models and how they apply to international and multi-cultural awareness
- Organizational value and commitment
- Breadth of experiences and ways we connect to these issues
- That there is a critical mass of individuals and leaders in UWEX that are interested in the globalization of UWEX

- Comparing the deficits and transformational aspects of certain themes
- International opportunities and connections
- Encouraged me to internationalize

4. What is one thing that you will do differently as a result of this workshop?

- Incorporate international examples
- Look for international opportunities
- In HLE-“festivals of India” program they have coming up-I’ll add component of looking at commonalities with participants and with our own cultural/religious festivals
- Work more with existing programming in my community
- Make sure I talk to my children about prejudice, int’l perspective
- Keep working on language skills
- Develop more contacts
- More readily pursue International Ed. Opportunities
- Try to network with more people on the participant list to increase Int’l activities
- Continue to advocate for international programming and research
- Continue to locate outside funding to support my international work
- Keep up networks
- Create opportunity to infuse globalization concepts into my existing teaching and work at large
- Try to incorporate more in my programs
- Find Ext. professional to assist me with an upcoming project
- Speak out respectfully supporting multi-cultural issues
- Look for relevant opportunities
- Nothing I can think of at the moment
- Spend more time and be more forthright with international issues
- Tell local folks more about the international situations I’ve learned about
- Incorporate my own international learning into my teaching
- Convince my faculty to include more cross cultural experience and service learning/community based research in ethnic and international
- Encourage staff to incorporate global language and concepts into their work
- Encourage critical thinking
- Encourage county teams to incorporate global concepts in teamwork and leadership programs
- Keep within the network of the attendance of this group
- Incorporate more diversity in my teaching
- Stretch leadership programs to handle new dimensions
- Incorporate international examples
- Look for international opportunities

5. How could we have improved this workshop?

- More time, more time to work on plans
- Identify one or two concrete recommendations to be acted upon
- Can't think of anything, Nice Job!
- 2 days, this wasn't enough time
- When it got down to "action"-be more specific-assign tasks-focus groups
- Have a short "opportunity fair" attached
- No suggestions-pretty well done
- Maybe more opportunities for CE faculty to outline their experiences
- Longer lunch break
- More time for group work
- Staying on schedule in morning
- More time at the end to tie up prioritize action plans and assign responsibility for implementing them
- Better food
- It was a great workshop
- Time for physical stretch every 45 minutes
- Dunno, it was well planned
- Have WACEC leadership here
- Well-organized-great keynoter
- It was great
- Encourage participation by more people without global experiences
- Make it longer
- Too much sitting in AM

6. What "next steps" are you personally willing to take?

- Make proposals in my institution
- Whatever it takes
- Learn second language
- Multimedia help
- Make myself available for questions/contacts
- I would provide information, mentoring to 'newbies' to international work
- Would be glad to be on international committee to set up clearing house or center-have experience in pursuing Feds/NGO grants (D. Elsass)
- I will keep on pursuing-leading-challenging
- I serve on committee, etc. to move to next step
- Tap into expanded awareness of global resources
- More of this
- See #4, stay energized in the follow-up presenters/communicators
- Too soon to tell
- Join in action taking committees
- Pursue my intn'l career
- Teach int'l perspectives
- Look for and "advertise" outreach opportunities for agents

- Self-assessment of my own skills and assets
- Please contact me when “next steps” organizationally are being determined
- Continue my own diversity/multicultural training
- Work toward including global perspectives in program area curricular and pubs, etc. Seek sources and delivery mechanisms
- Participate in any “next steps” that are taken by UWEX
- Strengthen international committee, explore new resources
- I could continue with discussion/team
- Participate with international work
- Host international professional
- Incorporate more global perspective into programming through special emphasis and other programs
- Enroll in some type of beginning Spanish class
- Add global perspective-gently if necessary-in all programming
- Search for ways to acknowledge that people risk losing something when they take global perspective
- Will participate in an ext. committee related to these issues
