

Bells of Luxemburg April Meeting Minutes

For our April meeting we spent most of our time talking to the kids about different projects you can do at the fair. The leaders would call out a project from the book and we would have the kids come up and say there favorite part of that project. We also talked about different projects you can do in different states. Finally to wrap up the meeting we asked some members to do presentation on projects you can do at the fair.