Reports of other officers/committees:

Fundraising: Easter Serogy's passed out at today's meeting and due back at March meeting.

Project Day: March 16 @ LC High School. Members decided that the horse project isn't going to participate this year.

Time and Talent: Aliza, Mary, and Morgan volunteered to put Horse Project basket together. The event is March 31 at the Luxemburg Sportsman's Club, Ashlee moved to put a $70 budget on the basket. Mary seconded. The motion passed.

Gymkhana Clinic: Courtney Danmeier will be the clinician. Lexy will work on getting times. The members decided that we should have 2 smaller sessions for different levels. We will have more information at the March meeting. The clinic will be May 18 at the fairgrounds.

Clothing Order: Discussion about finding other places and prices to order the clothing from. Please bring information to the March meeting.

Christmas Party: Members discussed what they liked and disliked about the changes with the party this year.

All-Around Awards: Congratulations to this year's All-Around Winners. Senior: Ashlee Siegmund, Junior: Aliza Jacobs, and Beginner: Sydney Pribek

Practice Nights: Kim Jacobs, Stacy Stepanek, and Linda Pribek volunteered to be on the committee.

Drill Team: Stacy thanked the members of the 2017-18 drill team for all of their hard work. Drill team will run similar to last year. There will be a competitive team and a non-competitive team. Members will be required to submit pattern idea and a signup form. The signup sheet was passed around. This year 4-H leaders will also be allowed to participate in drill team. They will be expected to follow the same rules and the youth members with the exception that they will not be required to perform at the fair. The addition of leaders joining is still up in the air.
