

MONEY $MART

in Head Start

Please answer each question as honestly as possible. There are no right or wrong answers, just check which answer describes you the best.

1. Have you seen the newsletter Money $mart in Head Start?

Yes

No

Unsure

2. How much of the newsletter do you usually read?

None of it

Skim over it

Most of it

All of it

3. What do you usually do with the newsletters?

Throw away

Keep and file

Share with someone

4. Compared to the other information I have gotten on financial education, these newsletters are:

Much less useful

About the same

Much more useful

5. People get useful information on money from many sources. Please rate how useful each of the sources below have been for you.

	Do not use	Not useful	Somewhat useful	Very useful
Parents & friends	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Class or workshop	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Websites	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
"Money $mart in Head Start" newsletter	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Other: _____	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

6. Please say whether you agree or disagree with the following:

Reading the newsletters helped me to...

...Make a spending plan

Agree

Disagree

Neither

...Set a financial goal

...Put money into a savings account

...Know where I spend my money day to day

...Figure out my debt and start to make payments

...Talk to my child about money

...Talk to a partner or family member about money

...Get the most from my tax refund and tax credits

...Make a plan for an unexpected expense

Thank you!