Volunteers are fundamental to many successful Extension programs. Research indicates that nearly one third of volunteers will choose not to continue volunteering based on poor management practices. Achieving the Extension Mission Through Volunteers is an online cohort course for the novice and experienced Extension professional working with volunteers to enhance and deliver Extension programs. This course is designed to highlight best practices in volunteer development and management and to help build staff and organizational capacity around volunteer management and development regardless of the program area.

Overall course objectives:
Participants will:
- increase volunteer management competencies
- build knowledge and skills related to identifying, recruiting, selecting, and supporting volunteers
- understand their own volunteer development approach, the organization’s philosophy related to volunteerism and current trends in volunteerism

Navigation:
- Participants will receive an introductory email and link to the course site prior to the introductory week.
- Virtual meetings, pre-recorded presentations and activities are found on the course site.
- Click the tabs to move from one module to another. (Additional tabs will be added as the course progresses.)

Course Structure:
- During this 7-week course members participate in pre-recorded sessions, readings, activities, 3 live webinars, interact with a wide variety of resources and hear from experts. It will take participants approximately 5 hours each week to complete the course.

Week One: Introductory Week
Monday, January 27 – Sunday, February 2

The first week of the course is very important! Before we dig into the content – we work to develop our online learning community, ensure all participants are familiar with the course site, understand how to write & interact in Discussion Boards, and everyone has the technology they need to be successful.

Explore the Achieving the Extension Mission Through Volunteers course site to become familiar with the course layout.

- Go to the “Start Here” Tab on the Course Site.
  - Complete the Volunteerism Self-Assessment
  - Review all of the resources under: Tips for being successful in an online course
  - Watch the “Course Introduction” Video
  - Download (optional print) the Course Schedule

- Actively engage in the Discussion Board, “Introductions”. Post your own response and comment on at least two others! Check back regularly through the week to get-to-know other participants and to build our learning community

- Create your course binder (optional)
  - For your convenience, index pages are provided to help you organize a course binder of resources from this course to reference after the course is completed. (Binder not included in course)
Designate time on your calendar to work on course materials. It is recommended that you block time, as you would for a face-to-face training. The table below provides an outline of course activities to add to your calendar.

Week Two: Modules 1 and 2
Monday, February 3 – Sunday, February 9

Module 1: Volunteerism in Extension
After this Module you will be able to:
❖ Define volunteerism and how critical volunteers are to Extension programs.
❖ Recognize the elements of an effective volunteer delivery system and the role of the volunteer program manager within the context of local Extension programming.
❖ Assess current volunteer delivery systems including specific elements of volunteer development, volunteer system management and personal readiness.
❖ Identify your personal approach to volunteerism as it relates to your volunteer program manager role.

Chapter 1: What is Volunteerism?
● This chapter gives an overview of volunteerism across Extension including insights from Retired Dean and Director Rick Klemme of Wisconsin and Associate Dean and Director Dorothy Freeman of Minnesota.

Chapter 2: The Volunteer System and Manager Role
● Consider the distinction between leading and developing people and managing systems.

Chapter 3: Extension Professional Development Model
● Jim Rutledge, Adjunct Professor and Executive Director 4-H Foundation, Inc. 4-H Foundation Development Manager at Oklahoma State University helps you think about how your own professional development stages influence the capacity to reach larger audiences with more valuable educational programs.

Chapter 4: Personal Approach to Volunteerism
● Identify your personal approach to volunteerism and how it relates to your professional role.

Optional Side-Trip: Conducting a Stakeholder Interview (5 minutes)
● This optional activity will be referenced at the end of the course during the unit on public, organizational and private value. This presentation is offered here so you have a chance in the next couple weeks to make appointments and conduct your interview.
Module 2: Trends and Motivations
After this Module you will be able to:

- Articulate trends in volunteerism, including identifying generational differences in volunteers, differentiating between traditional volunteers and potential new volunteer types

Chapter 1: Trends and Motivations
- Consider the shifts in volunteering and how Extension programs can capitalize on these changes.

Chapter 2: Live synchronous webinar #1:
Volunteerism in Extension and Course Introduction

Participate in one webinar:
- Thursday, Feb. 6, 10:30 am - 12:00 pm (CT) OR
- Friday, Feb. 7, 10:30 am - 12:00 pm (CT)
Week Three: Module 3
Monday, February 10 – Sunday, February 16

Module 3: Identifying and Recruiting Volunteers
After this Module you will be able to:
● Conduct a community assessment of volunteer capacity
● Create a volunteer role description to match identified needs
● Develop a volunteer recruitment plan

Chapter 1: Community Assessment of Volunteer Capacity
● Explore assessment tools for identifying new volunteers

Chapter 2: Developing and Analyzing Role Descriptions
● Consider role descriptions and the volunteers who would be attracted to them.

Chapter 3: Developing a Recruitment Plan
● Consider what should be included in a recruitment plan.
● Create a “sales pitch” for recruiting a specific volunteer.

Optional Side-Trip:
● Explore VEAR - Volunteer Engagement and Activation Resources

Week Four: Work Week
Monday, February 17 – Sunday, February 23

Is there a side trip you wanted to complete but haven’t had time?
Is there a Chapter you haven’t been able to watch?
Would you like more time to engage in the Discussion Board conversation?

Content Deep Dive
● This week is designed to provide an opportunity to dive deeper into the first few weeks of content and to catch up with any incomplete course activities to ensure you are prepared to participate in Modules 4-6.

Participate in Group Video Call
Group Leaders will lead a facilitated conversation, with time for questions and comments.
● Wednesday, February 19 10:30 am - 11:30 am (CT)
  ○ Look for an email from your Group Leaders with a link and information on how to participate
Week Five: Module 4
Monday, February 24 – Sunday, March 1

Module 4: Selecting and Matching Volunteers
After this Module you will be able to:
● Identify best practices of selecting volunteers
● Locate local policies and procedures related to your program area
● Explain components of a volunteer orientation

Chapter 1: Purpose of the Volunteer Selection Process
● Consider the integrity of the volunteer selection process.

Chapter 2: Components of the Volunteer Selection Process
● Learn about the components necessary in the selection process.

Chapter 3: Interview Process
● Discover the resources your state provides to help in interviewing volunteers.

Chapter 4: Placement of Volunteers
● Consider the most appropriate placement of volunteers for both the program and the volunteer.

Chapter 5: Orienting Volunteers
● Learn what to include in orientation to help make volunteers great ambassadors of your program.

Optional Side-Trip:
● Practice Interview: Using the resources from your state and program area (or the ones that you found in the previous activity) and the information in this module, plan and conduct a practice interview (15-20 minutes) with a co-worker, friend, family member, or other semi-willing subject.
Week Six: Module 5
Monday, March 2 – Sunday, March 8

Module 5: Supporting Volunteers
