

2022 Course Handbook

THANK YOU for participating in Achieving the Extension Mission through Volunteers!

Volunteers are fundamental to many successful Extension programs. Research indicates that nearly one third of volunteers will choose not to continue volunteering based on poor management practices. Achieving the Extension Mission Through Volunteers is an online cohort course for the novice and experienced Extension professional working with volunteers to enhance and deliver Extension programs. This course is designed to highlight best practices in volunteer development and management and to help build staff and organizational capacity around volunteer management and development regardless of the program area.

Overall course objectives:

Participants will:

- ❖ increase volunteer management competencies
- ❖ build knowledge and skills related to the ISOTURE Model
- ❖ understand their own volunteer development approach, the organization's philosophy related to volunteerism and current trends in volunteerism

Course Site:

- To access the course site, participants will receive a confirmation email immediately after registration that includes sign-on information and the link to the course (please save). Participants will also receive an email from their cohort facilitators prior to the introductory week with more information.

Course Structure:

- During this 7-week course participants learn with a cohort of colleagues through pre-recorded presentations, readings, activities, 3 live webinars, 2 video conference calls, while interacting with a wide variety of resources and experts. It will take approximately 4-6 hours to complete designated material each week of the course.

Week One: Introductory Week

Monday, January 24 – Sunday, January 30

The first week of the course is very important! Before we dig into the content – we work to develop our online learning community, ensure all participants are familiar with the course site, understand how to write & interact in Discussion Boards, and that everyone has the technology they need to be successful.

Explore the Achieving the Extension Mission Through Volunteers course site to become familiar with the course layout.

- Go to “Start Here” on the Course Site.
  -  Review all the resources under: Tips for being successful in an online course
    - Print: Create your course binder (optional)
      - For your convenience, we have provided all the handouts used in the course, as well as module divider pages, to help you organize a course binder to reference during and after the course is completed. (Binder not included in course)
    - Complete: Create your Profile on the course site (Canvas)
    - Read: Tips for Discussion Board Contributions
    - Reach out: Post to the HELP Discussion Board, if needed
  -  Complete the Pre-course Volunteerism Self-Assessment
  -  Actively engage in the Discussion Board, “Introductions”. Post your own response and comment on at least two others! Check back regularly through the week to get-to-know other participants and build our learning community
  -  Participate in the Introductory Week Video Conference Call with your cohort (see schedule for date and time). You will receive an email from your cohort facilitators with log-on information.
  -  Designate time on your calendar to work on course materials. It is recommended that you block increments of 30 min to 2-hours throughout the week. The table on page 3 provides an outline of course activities to add to your calendar.
