

2024 UWSP Field Course: “Lake Superior-Natural Resources, Culture, Climate Change”, October 2-October 6

11 students + 4 Instructors = 15 Total

Day 1: Wednesday, 10/2 BOOZHOO! CLIMATE AND FORESTS	Day 2: Thursday, 10/3 MOONINGWANEEKAANING	Day 3: Friday, 10/4 CLIMATE, CULTURE, & TREATY RIGHTS	Day 4: Saturday, 10/5 CLIMATE IMPACTS AND ADAPTATION	Day 5: Sunday, 10/6 BUILDING RESILIENCE
AM: Depart UWSP Lunch en route. 12 noon-2:30 pm Meet Bayfield County Foresters at Iron River A&W, 7885 Old US Hwy 2 and travel to field site “Climate Change Adaptation on Working Forest Land” Bayfield County Foresters Caleb Brown. Field site location 2:30 pm Depart for Northern Great Lakes Visitor Center	Travel to Madeline Is. Ferry Terminal, 20 Washington Avenue, Bayfield, WI 54814 for departure to Mooningwanekaaning (Madeline Island) 9:00 am Ferry Departure Ojibwe Culture in the Lake Superior region: Madeline Island Museum (possible Rob Goslin or Mike Wiggins presenting) LaPointe Cemetery/Ojibwe Memorial Lunch: Town pavilion.	Travel to Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission (GLIFWC), Blackbird Tribal Center, Odanah WI 9:00 am Welcome: Manidoo Noodin (Mr. Jason Schlender)-GLIFWC Executive Administrator 9:15-10:00 am Intro to Ojibwe Treaty Rights., Climate Change and the Seasonal Round: Jenny VanSickle-GLIFWC Public Information Outreach Specialist, GLIFWC 10:00-10:45 Ojibwe Language, Culture, and Climate Change: Michael Waasegiizhig-Price – GLIFWC Traditional Ecological Knowledge Specialist Quick Break & move outdoors 11:00-11:45 “Beings on the Move” Activity: Cat Techtmann. Visit to Bad River Museum	9:00 Tourism and Climate Change: Natalie Chin-Climate and Tourism Outreach Specialist, Sea Grant. 10:30 Cable Natural History Museum, Cable. Climate change impacts on beings that rely on the subnivean zone. Exhibit and discussion: Mollie Krebs-Mertig-Curator/Naturalist. 715-798-3890 Travel to Ashland	Clean-up/Pack up Breakfast @ Camp Travel to Saxon Harbor, 10045 County Hwy A, Saxon, WI 54559 9:30 Saxon Harbor Reconstruction/Climate Adaptation: Eric Peterson-Iron County Forest Administrator Saxon Harbor: Story of Climate Impacts and Resilience- Bill & Grace Hines, owners of Harbor Lights Climate Action Planning - Cat, Madeline Is. Town Park 12 noon Picnic Lunch-Saxon Harbor
3:15-4:15 pm NGLVC Visitor Center, “Forests on the Move” Activity- Cat Techtmann, UW Extension 4:15- 5:00 pm Explore Visitor Center	1:30 Giiweki Farm: Indigenous food sovereignty and climate change. Service project at the farm.	Lunch: Pizza Buffet @ Hugos	Coop Brown Bag Lunch: Prentice Park-Ashland	DEPART FOR UWSP BAAMAAP!!!
5:00 pm Depart for Crosswoods Camp, 15010 Black Bear Road, Mason, WI 54856 6:00 pm Group cooks dinner @ Camp	Reflective time at Lake Superior 5:30 or 6:30 pm Depart via Ferry Free Time and dinner BYO-Bayfield Return to Camp	2:00 pm: UWSP Aquaculture Center-Climate Resiliency and Fish, Tyler Firkus, Red Cliff. 4:30-ish Tetzner’s-Climate resiliency on a family farm, Washburn,WI Return to Camp-group dinner	Afternoon: Building Climate Resiliency Field Demo. Kevin Brewster, Restoration Manager-Superior River Watershed Assoc. Reflective Time-Ashland area Return to Camp-group dinner

Emergency Numbers

Cat Techtmann: 715.360.6170, Holly Petrillo:715.347.4490,Austin Holland: 815-343-0290,Kendra Liddicoat: 715-630-0640

2024 UWSP Field Course: "Lake Superior-Natural Resources, Culture, Climate Change", October 2-October 6

11 students + 4 Instructors = 15 Total

Day 1: Wednesday, 10/2 BOOZHOO! CLIMATE AND FORESTS	Day 2: Thursday, 10/3 MOONINGWANekaaning	Day 3: Friday, 10/4 CLIMATE, CULTURE, & TREATY RIGHTS	Day 4: Saturday, 10/5 CLIMATE IMPACTS AND ADAPTATION	Day 5: Sunday, 10/6 BUILDING RESILIENCE