Club sharing ideas talked about. Raquel's Bowler club did a white elephant gift exchange. She also does a bingo box (anything anyone doesn't want that they got as a gift, she puts in a box), then when the kids want to play bingo, they can pick a prize from the box and they play until everyone gets a prize. Belle Plaine does a cold box lunch social. They decorate a box and have a cold lunch in the box. They then auction them off for no more that $4 a box. Tiger Tribe does board games. If planning outdoor sledding or skating, let Megan know ahead of time. Navarino snowshoe hike was brought up as a nice experience.

Terri went over a handout of major changes to the fairbook. More to come in the next clover line.

Daily gratitude exercise was led by Megan.
