Happy Fall!

In October, Upham Woods had many school groups visiting including Aldo Leopold Community School, Maryland Ave Montessori, Randall Consolidated, County Line Elementary, and Baraboo High School Wildlife Class. Students got to do various activities like our Wacky Water Critters program, team building, and hiking Blackhawk Island. River Valley Conservation Day allowed students to participated in conservation activities as well as learn about conservation professions.

Upham also hosted the Lake Leaders Institute for their conference, Wisconsin Dells High School staff for their wellness day, and an accessible birding event. 4-H Arts Camp brought members back for a weekend full of visual arts, music, photography, communication, theater, and art in nature.

Seasonal Staff Farewell

Abbey, Kara, and Mark: Thank you for all your hard work this summer and fall, and best of luck in all of your future endeavors!

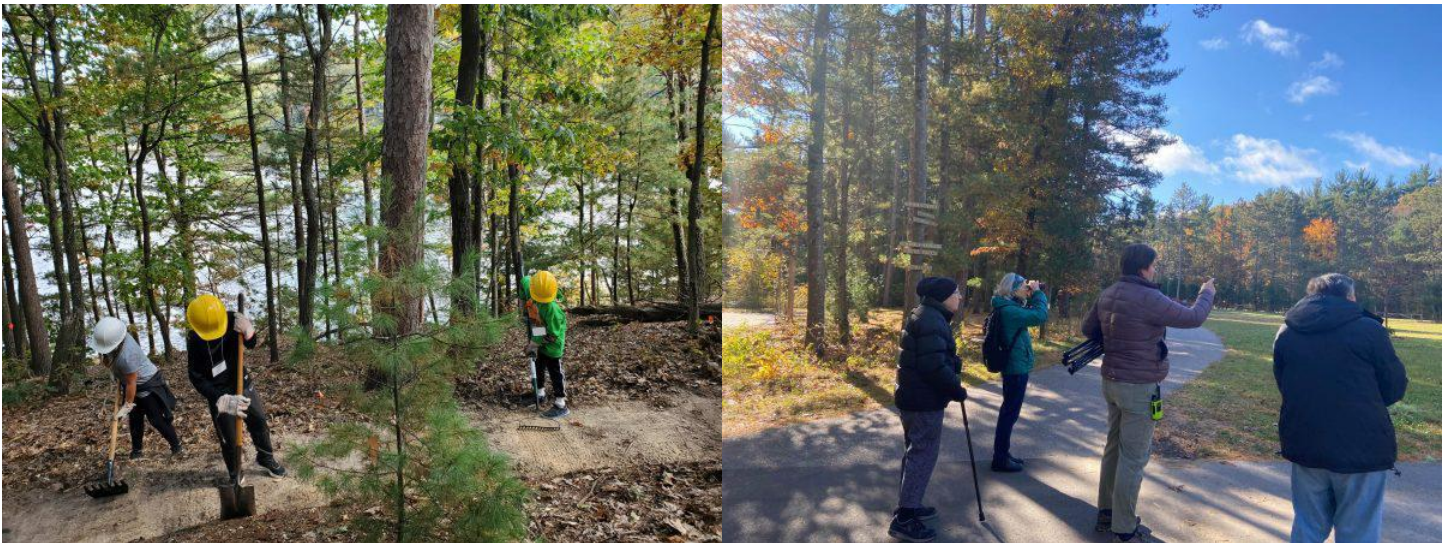

Matt and Cayleigh: Thank you for your continued hard work, we look forward to moving into the winter season!

Newsletter Schedule Change

"We hope you've enjoyed our monthly newsletter over the past couple of months as we've shared exciting summer news from the return of 4-H camp to the hiring of our new director, Amy Workman.

Winter months are slower at Upham Woods, so we will be returning to a bi-monthly newsletter. You can expect the next edition of our newsletter to come out in early January."
