Discover the 318-acre Upham Woods Outdoor Learning Center, including the state natural area of Blackhawk Island while becoming certified as a Wisconsin Master Naturalist!

Investigate macroinvertebrates living in the river and connect with active research projects. Learn about Wisconsin's natural world and become part of the statewide network of informed individuals dedicated to education and conservation service across the state.

Explore Master Naturalist topics through three complementary focal points

- place-based experiential education
- land stewardship and developing personal conservation ethics
- opportunities to give service in diverse areas including youth education, conservation work, and outdoor recreation

Where: Wisconsin Dells, WI

Training Schedule:

- Orientation- July 31: 2-4 pm
- Mondays 9-4 pm: August 7, 14, 21, 28 and September 11, 18

Fee: $275

Reduced fees are available for those who find the registration fee to be a financial hardship.
