

Wisconsin First Detector Network in 2024

Wisconsin First Detector Network (WIFDN) empowers people to take action on invasive species through education & volunteer opportunities. In 2024, we continued to provide training on invasive species identification, mapping, & management to volunteers and professionals across Wisconsin.

1,783 participants attended 29 workshops statewide.

+4,600 positive records added

+13,000 negative reports

2,781

hours dedicated by volunteers to invasive species surveying, management, + outreach

6,358

miles traveled to volunteer activities

Contact us at WIFDNcoordinator@gmail.com to get involved!

Visit our website to access our knowledge base, including:

- Learning modules and early detection lists
- Library of identification videos and publications
- Interactive invasives species detection calendar

